AN ECLECTIC PORT CITY WITH SPIRIT AND SOUL

Fremantle, or 'Freo' as it is affectionately known, is Perth's port city, situated where the Swan River meets the Indian Ocean. Just a 30-minute drive or train from Perth city, it's bursting with vibrancy, colour and quirky culture.

It's not just art galleries, pubs and cafés that are sprinkled throughout this bohemian town — the bustling Fremantle Markets (still going strong after 100 years) and one of Australia's first micro-breweries are there too. Savour fresh seafood harbourside, fine fare in historic buildings or sip a refreshing drink on the beach as you watch an Indian Ocean sunset.

Fremantle is like nowhere else in Australia: an eclectic collision of character, creativity, culture and cuisine.

PERTH'S RELAXED ISLAND PLAYGROUND

Rottneest Island — or 'Rotto' as it's affectionately known — is a little pocket of paradise, jam-packed with adventure and a favourite local getaway. Getting to this car-free, protected nature reserve is easy: take a short ferry ride from the mainland or arrive in style by helicopter or airplane. You'll be greeted by 63 stunning beaches, 20 beautiful bays, an abundance of spectacular marine life, and the world's happiest animal, the adorable quokka.

Discover Rottneest Island's cultural significance and history on an Aboriginal guided tour, then enjoy an ocean boat cruise dining on sumptuous local seafood.

Explore the island by scenic flight, segway, bus, boat, waterbike, or even a glass-bottom kayak. One of the best ways to see the island is by bicycle — pedal from bay to bay at your own pace or take a guided bike tour to discover lighthouses, world war relics, pink salt lakes, caves and coves.

And whether you choose to live the 'Rotto life' for a day or a week, one thing's for sure: this is definitely the island getaway you've dreamt about.

FOLLOW WINE, FOOD AND ART TRAILS

Home to more than 40 wineries and 70 restaurants and cafes, the Swan Valley is both rich in history and contemporary, with much to offer curious eaters and drinkers. A relaxed day trip from Perth, take a short drive or board a river cruise — it's the only wine region that you can cruise to from an Australian capital city.

As well as food and wine, enjoy other adventures including horse riding, cycling, golf, wildlife, art and Aboriginal culture.

DISCOVER A WORLD OF WILDLIFE

Just a short trip from Perth, the seaside town of Rockingham offers breathtaking coastal scenery, unique marine animal encounters and a range of aquatic adventures. Renowned for its safe, calm waters, you can swim in the ocean with wild dolphins or watch from a viewing platform as they frolic beneath your feet.

A short ferry ride away, you can meet the 1,200 penguins who live on the aptly named Penguin Island, whilst a boat cruise to, or kayak around, Seal Island offers the chance to watch sea lions and seals basking on the beach.

HIT THE BEACH(ES)

With 19 stunning beaches within easy reach of the city, splashes and sandcastles are never far away. While you're there, be sure to experience a cool drink or fresh seafood as the sun sinks slowly into the Indian Ocean. Local favourites are Cottesloe, Scarborough, Trigg and City Beach.
